Actions to Stop Doing:
The team should make sure to not be late/show up to meetings.

Actions to Start Doing:
The team should start speaking out more about their ideas and possible adjustments to the original plan. The team should put more tasks onto the sprint board as the small number of tasks initially dissuade others from doing tasks.

Actions to Keep Doing:
Share code and ideas that can be generalized to other issues or possible solutions. Making good progress on implementing the user stories.
